

Ans 4:

Drug latenciation is the chemical modification of a biologically active compound to form a new compound, which in vivo will liberate the parent compound. Drug latenciation is synonymous with prodrug system.