

SECTION - 1

Q-2

Flood frequency analysis -

→ Flood frequency analysis is a technique used by hydrologists to predict flow value corresponding to specific return periods or probabilities along a river. After choosing the probability distribution that best fits the annual maximum data, flood frequency curves are plotted.

