

Types of collection systems :-

- Refuse collection systems - Household waste removed from the home.
- commercial waste collection - commercial waste removed primarily using dumpsters.
- Recyclable material collection - collection of recyclable material separated at the source of generation.

* Commercial waste collection :-

- commercial waste collection is a part of the waste management process.
- it is the physical pickup and transfer of waste produced by businesses to a place where it can be treated or disposed of.
- As a business owner, it is your legal responsibility to ensure that all of the waste your company produces is handled, collected and disposed of properly.
- It is important that you fully understand.

Commercial waste collection. That's why this part includes everything you need to know

following are the Types of Commercial waste collection

→ General waste collection.

→ Dry mixed Recycling.

→ Glass waste collection

→ food waste collection etc.

* Advantages / Benefits of:

→ you will manage Time more efficiently.

→ you are promoting health and safety

→ you are doing your part for environment

→ it becomes easier to keep things clean and green.

→ it help improve your Brand Image etc.