

Section 1

Ans 5,

Various methods used to estimate the quantities of Solid waste management → waste quantities are usually estimated on the basis of past records of waste generation,

The method commonly used to assess the quantities are following

1) Load count analysis

2) Weight volume analysis

3) material balance analysis

4) the number of trucks that were weight