

Section - 1

Ans => Probable maximum Precipitation

The Probable Maximum Precipitation (PMP) is defined as the greatest or extreme rainfall for a given duration that is physically possible over a station or basin.