

On Site Storage of Solid Waste

On site storage means the temporary collection of waste at the household level. It is important that waste is stored in proper container.