

Section - 2

The site selection criteria of Sanitary landfill —

- ① Land area and Volume should be sufficient enough to provide landfill capacity so that the projected need can be fulfilled for several years.
- ② The landfill site should not be at location where suitable buffer zone b/w landfill site and population are not available.

- ③ The landfill site are having steep gradient should not be selected
- ④ The water level in ground table should be sufficient below the base of any excavation to enable landfill development

⑤ No major power transmission or other infrastructure like sewers, water supply lines should be crossing through landfill development area.