

Ans-1 Onsite means these functions are concerned with solid waste at place where the waste is generated. Ex - for residential waste this means at home in the household.

Onsite storage means the temporary collection of waste at the household level. It is important that waste is stored in proper containers.