

like sewers, water supply lines should be crossing through landfill developmental area.

Q3 Write short note on electronic waste hazardous waste.

- Ans a) Electronic waste or E-waste describe the discarded electrical or electronic device.
- b) Used electronic which are destined for refurbishment, reuse, resale, salvage recycling through the material recovery.
- c) Informal processing of e-waste in developing countries can lead to adverse human health effect and environment pollution.
- d) Electronic scrap component, such as CPU's contains potentially harmful material such as lead, cadmium, beryllium, or brominated flame retardants.
- e) Recycling and disposal of E-waste may involves significant risk to health of workers and their communities.