

The main component of flat solar collector is :-

- Black surface - absorbent of incident solar energy.
- Glazing covers - a transparent layer that transmits radiation to the absorber, but prevent radiative and conductive heat loss
- Tubes containing heat fluid to transfer heat from the collector
- Support structure to protect the component and hold them in place
- Insulation covering side and bottom of the collector to reduce heat loss.

