

Question - 5 section - 2

Answer

The word geothermal means related to the heat of the earth. It comes from the greek words geo (earth) and therme (heat). In most countries, geothermal heat occurs in rock that is dry. The technology to generate electricity from this hot water and ~~steam~~ steam is called "wet geothermal technology".

