

[Question-1 section - 1]

Answer

Skip

⇒ Skip Distance:—

- The skip distance is the distance from the transmitter to the point where the sky wave is first returned to earth.
- The size of the skip distance depends on the frequency, angle of incidence and ionization.
- The minimum distance from the transmitter along the surface of the earth, at which a wave above the critical frequency will be returned to earth.

(Skip distance)