

Q6)

Working principle of flat plate collectors in flat plate collectors sunlight passes through the glass and strikes the absorber plate, which heats up, changing solar energy into heat energy. Absorber plates are commonly painted with the selective coating, which absorb and retain heat better than ordinary black paint.