

Q.1 Explain the evolution of TOM concept with its significance?

Q.2 Total quality management (TQM) is a strategic commitment to make quality and customer satisfaction a guiding factor in everything an organization does. TQM, which has preoccupied the attention of organization since the beginning of industrial revolution, is based on the participation of all members in an organization.