

Gas welding ↴

In the gas welding process of oxygen - hydrogen - acetylene gas is burned in a torch to create a -painted flame. This flame is directed upon the surface to be joined.