

⇒ Gas welding and cutting -

Gas welding is a type of liquid state welding process in which fuel gases generate heat. In this process mostly oxy acetylene gas is used as fuel gas.

* The process consists of preheating the metal to fuel to its ignited.