

Q-7 What is E-Payment? why is orientation and Standardization Required for e-Payment business.

Ans An E-Payment System is a way of Making transaction or paying for goods and services through an electronics medium, without the use of check or cash. it is also called an electronics Payment System or online Payment System. Read on to learn more.

Electronic Payment Methods

One of the most popular Payment forms online are credit and debits Card. Besides them, there are also alternative Payment methods, such as bank Transfer electronic wallets.

credit card # E-wallet # Cash Payment system # cheque # orientation is a necessity because the transaction is irreversible so the Client should be very familiar with How to undertake the procedure to avoid mis convenience either through error of commission

So it.

