

Answer No-9

Business policies are an important tool to ensure that the business operates at maximum efficiency. Written in these policies is the blueprint for the whole organization's expected behavior, role, and reporting.

Importances of business policy:-)

- Business policies are important and affect everything from legal liabilities to employees satisfaction and a positive public image. Policies make sure everyone is on the same page when it comes to expectations of certain things. A business might have policies pertinent to different aspects of the company. There may be safety policies, human resource hiring policies and anti-discrimination policies. There may also be policies that pertain to employees dress code, lunch schedules, time off and holidays. Other policies are relevant to the customer experience including greeting customers, phone call management and product delivery specifics.
- All of these policies create a positive work environment.
