

Date _____

Page No. _____

Section-2

Q 1

RISK! -

Risk is an event or condition which could happen and its appearance. If happens as a harmful influence on the project. The project risk represent a subjective assessment based on the probability of non realization of the set objective within frame work of the given time money and other resources.

The probability realized risk can be measured supposed on the scale. On the scale measurement from zero to 1.

Developing a proposal - The main purpose of the development proposal is to serve as a base for the development of the proposed system. The proposal consists of two parts:

1. A description of the current and proposed system.
2. A review on evolution of the adequacy of the current and proposed system.

2 Developing feasibility study :- Feasibility refers to the process that describes identifies and evaluates the proposed system and select the best system for proper functioning for evaluating the feasibility study is conducted that helps in determining whether the system is possible to developed ~~it~~, or not..