Section - 5

ANS 1 Application catagories: - In any given business you could have hundred maybe even thousand of application even if you are just getting application.

Creating application catagories

To create an application catagories

1. Click the organization & police icon

2. In the sidebar select an organization

3. In the application catagoury section

4. Click the create button to add the catogoury to the selected organization.

Software package :- The term soft ware package is simply multiple application our code modules that work together to meet various goals and objectives one of the most prominent example is something like the microsoft office package which include individual application such as word excel Acces and power point.

Application software type :-

word processing software

Database software

multimedia software.

Logical design :-

Logical database design is the process of determmining the logical data structure needed to support an organization information resource. The logical design helps you to implement a database that satisfies the requirement of you business organization.

A complete and accurate logical design for a database helps to ensure:

Data Independent
Physical database flexibility
Integrity
User satisfaction