

Ans 2

Electronic market :- Electronic market are information system which are used by multiple separate organisational entities within one or among multiple firms in economic value.

Internet Commerce :- Broad term covering all commercial activity on the internet including ordering placing order making payments transferring funds and collaborating with trading partners.

Internet commerce is not a synonym for the electronic commerce but one of its subsets.