

~~Existing~~ Business Strategy ⇒

→ It can be mean many things, but it's basically a way to separate yourself from your business.

→ In most cases, this means selling most or all of your business.

→ It could mean hiring someone to run your business in your absence.

→ It might involve a unique arrangement that work for you.

→ medical issues that make it impossible to work

→ family issues that distract you from work.

Just In Time delivery →

→ It is a supply chain inventory management technique that is designed to increase efficiency while decreasing waste by receiving product or materials only when they are needed.

→ with dropshipping being the increasingly preferred method of order fulfillment for smaller e-commerce retailers.

→ JIT (Just ~~in~~ in Time delivery) is even more appealing.

→ for streamlining order fulfillment -ment for peak process efficiency to cutting cost in the form of waste.
