

Ans.

Data is

facts and figures which convey something specific, but which ~~are~~ are not organized in any way.

Information is contextualized, categorized, calculated and condensed data.

Knowledge.

know-how, understanding, experience, insight, intuition and contextualized information