

1) Ans(1/1)

Qo Assessment of industrial soil waste management problem greatly water depending on the nature of the industry their location and mode of disposal of waste further from arriving at an appropriate solution for better management of industrial solid waste assessment of nature of feature of waste generate is also essential industrial are required to collect and disposal of their waste at specific disposal sites and such collection through and disposal is required to be monitored by the concerned state pollution control board (SPCB) or pollution control committee (PCC) in Union Territory. The following problems are generally encountered in cities and town while dealing with industrial solid waste.

- 1) There are no specific disposal sites where industrial and disposal their waste
- 2) mostly industrial generation solid waste in city and town limits are of small scale nature and even do not -comprate of SPCB/PCCs

Date |

Page No. |