

(sec-3/1)

Date |

Page No. |

* Objective of landfilling: A land fill site is a site for the disposal of waste material (land fill) in the disposal of waste material land fill is the oldest and most common form of waste disposal although the systematic buried of the waste with fill intermediate and final cover beyond in 1940 in the post refuse was first in 1940 in the post refuse through into pits some land filling site also used for waste mgmt purpose.

* Advantage open dumping: open dumping is defined as a land disposal site at which solid waste are disposed of in a manner that do not protect.