

Sec-1

Q1/ Information security:

→ (1)

Information Security related to computing systems, information is subjected increasing threat of attacks availability of number of tool and resources on interest that may be used to attack system.

- 2) Information security means to consider available counter measure or controls stimulate through uncovered vulnerabilities.

→ Diff. b<sup>n</sup> Security & Threats security: - ① Security is the degree of protection against danger, damage, loss & crime.

- ② The Institute for security and open methodologues (ISE Com) defines security.

Threats:

- ① Wheras attacks or threats are intentional or illegal actions performed by unauthorized users to make security hole in information system.
- ② In other words a threat is a possible event that can harm an information system.