

^{Ans}
(2) Elements of Solid waste management

(1) waste generation → those activities in which material are identified as no longer being of value and either thrown away or gathered

(2) Storage → those activities associated with the handling, storage and preservation of

(3) Collection → those activity that gather of solid waste

(4) transportation →

(5) processing and recovery → those technique improve the efficiency.

(6) Disposal → those activity associated with ultimate disposal of solid waste including