

5. Drinking water is water intended for consumption for drinking and cooling purposes from any source. It is water supplied by any means for human consumption. The quality standards for drinking water is prescribed by Bureau of Indian standards.