

Ans 3 Financial manager is a person who is responsible in a significant way to carry out finance function. and responsible for the financial health of an organization.

- They provide financial support direct investment activities. and develop strategies and plans for the long-term financial goal of their organization.

- The finance manager also do tasks that are specific to their organization or industry. esp. government financial manager must be experts on government appropriations and budgeting processes.

- The role of finance manager, particular in business, is changing in response to technological advance that have significantly reduced the amount of time is taken to produce financial reports.

- financial managers main responsibility is to be monitoring a company's finance. but they now do more data analysis and advise senior managers on ideas to maximize profits.
- they often work on teams acting as business advisors to top executives.

◦ financial manager typically

- to prepare financial statements, business activities reports and forecasts.

- monitor financial details to ensure that legal requirements are met.

- supervise employees who do financial reporting and budgeting.

- Analyse market trends to find opportunities for expansion
- Help management make financial decision.

Main function of f.m

