

Q11 Cohen-Sutherland algorithm It is a computer graphic algorithm used for line clipping. The algorithm divides a 2D space into 9 regions & then efficiently determines the visible portions of lines that are visible in the central region of interest.