Mathematical Form of LPP.

Step 1: Identify the number of decision variables which govern the behaviour of objective function.

Step 2: Identify the set of Constraints on the decision variables and express them in the form of linear equation or linear equation.

Step 3: Express the objective function in the form of the linear equation in the decision variable.

Step 4: Optimize the objective function either graphically or mathematically.