Q-3

Physical Facilities : This includes the physiological needs of individuals and indicates the necessities as well as the comforts of life. It means the feeling of having or being able to have more physical facilities than is needed.

Physical facilities are necessary and complete for animals, while they are necessary but not complete for humans. It is easy to verify.

For animals : Animals need physical things to survive, mainly to take care of their body. For example, Cow will look for food when it is hungry. Once it gets the grass or fodder, it eats it, sits around to chew at leisure. Hence, we can say that as long as animals have physical things, they are largely fine. They don't desire other things like knowledge or a peaceful animal society or getting a good M.B.

For humans : While physical facilities are necessary for human beings, they are not complete by
