

Section-1

Q 1.) As the seed, thus the plant. Explain. Define ethics. What is the universal ^{human} order?

Solⁿ

As we all know that as ~~the~~ the seed, thus the plant. For example ~~a child~~ we give all the values & education, ethics etc to a child & then when he will do some thing during young age then the conclusion is that we grow a seed, as the seed, thus the plant.

ethics :-

This definitiveness of human conduct in term of values, policies & character is termed as ethics. ~~This ethics~~ In other words ethics is a branch of philosophy that address questions about morality - that is, concepts such as good vs ~~bad~~ bad, noble vs ignoble, right vs. wrong etc.

universal human order

human beings need to move from family to world family to achieve harmony
