

① What is value education and why it is so important for professional ethics.

Character oriented education that instills basic value and ethinic values in one's psyche is called 'Human Value Education'. The subject that is enables what is enable to understood 'what is valuable' for Human happiness is called value education. Value education is important to help anyone in improving the value system that he/she holds and put it to use. Once, one has understood his/hers value in life, he/she can examine and control the various choices he/she make in his/hers life. Value education enables us to understand our needs and visualize our goals correctly, and also help to remove our confusion and contradiction.

The concept of value education is more expensive and developmental. Value education is scientifically based. In value education is based on ideals of society. It is more important for professional ethics.