

Section 1.7

02 Ethics and Human Interface: Essence, determinants and consequences of ethics in human actions; dimensions of ethics; ethics in private and public relationships. Human values - lesson from the values, lives and teachings of great leaders, reformers and administrators, role of family, society and educational institutions in inculcating values.

Love: Relationship is between the self (I) and the other self (I). There

Love: Acceptance, affection, care, compassion, consideration, dedication, devotion, empathy, friendship, kindness, tolerance and trust.

Competence: It refers to the person's skill like swimmer, cricketer, fast bowler, crammers.

Intention: Is a course of action that a person intends to follow. It involves mental activity such as planning and forethought.