

S	M	T	W	T	F	S
1	2	3	4	5	6	7
8	9	10	11	12	13	14
15	16	17	18	19	20	21
22	23	24	25	26	27	28
29

Section-3

Q2 Definitiveness is desirable in human conduct - Comment.

Ans: The participation of human beings at different levels in the larger order in our value this participation is seen in two forms: Behaviour & work

Human Conduct :-

Values :- desirable or useful qualities in a person

Morals :- knowing what is right & what is wrong after reading / observing / experiencing something

Moral values :- the relative values that given us protection & respect if used correctly example: courage, commitment etc.

ethics :- moral values in action
(knowing the difference between right / wrong use of morals & doing the right thing even if it is risky or painful)

M	T	W	T	F	S	S
4	5	6	7	8	9	10
11	12	13	14	15	16	17
18	19	20	21	22	23	24
25	26	27	28	29	30

Human Conduct :- Behaviour which is ethically correct.
It is self-satisfying people-friendly, eco friendly & universal

ex. of ethical values = eg. Keeping promise, honesty, loyalty, fairness, concern for others, commitment abiding by law etc.

Good Professional = A person having ethical human conduct + requisite professional skills.