Q1 Value education:

- Ans (i) The subject that enables us to understand 'what is valuable' for human happiness is called value education.
- (ii) The present education system has become largely skill-based.
- (iii) The prime emphasis is on science and technology. However, science and technology can only help to provide the means to achieve what is considered valuable.
- (iv) It is not within the scope of science and technology to provide the competence of deciding what really is valuable.
- (v) Value education is a crucial missing link in the present education system.

If we want to understand what is the importance of ethics first we should understand what is ethics:

Professional ethics is defined as the personal and corporate rules that govern behaviour with the context of a particular profession.

And value of education teaches to build the quality of professional ethics in a human being.
