

SECTION- 4

Shiva

Date _____

Page _____

Ques 21-

Ans 1 → Project Identification: The purpose of project identification is to develop a preliminary proposal for the most appropriate set of investment or interventions and course of action within specific time and budget frames, to address a specific development goal in a particular region or setting.

Project Identification is a process to assess each project idea and select the project with the highest priority concerned with collection, compilation and analysis of economic data for the eventual purpose of locating possible opportunities for investment.

