

Section-10

2

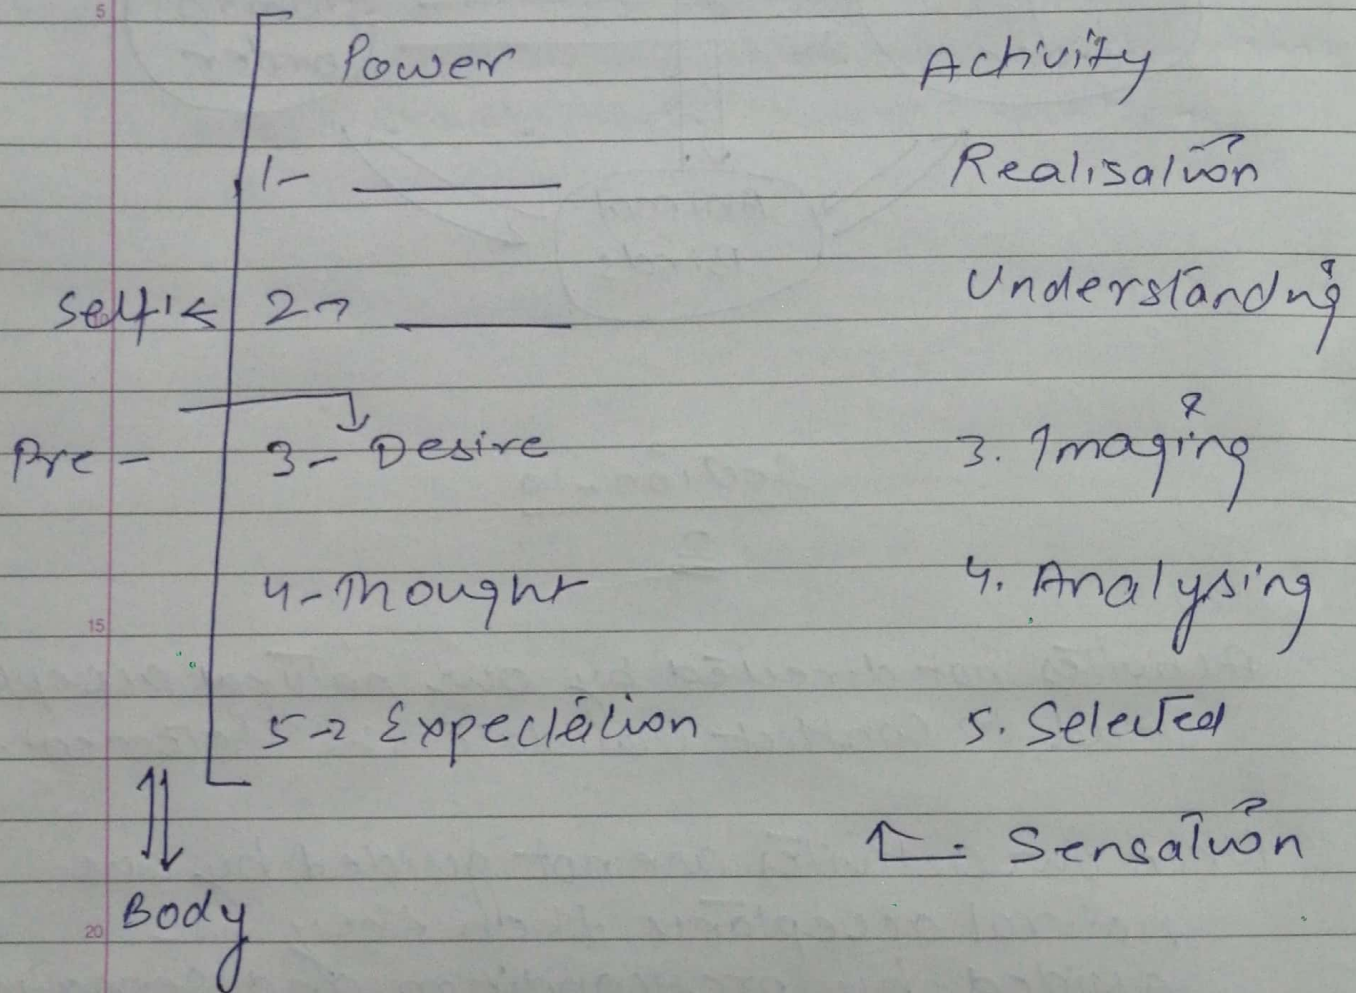

Activities not directed by our natural acceptance lead to conflict validate the statement.

When our activities are not guided by our natural acceptance then they are guided by pre-condition and sensation. Precondition means we have assumed something about our desired on the basis of prevailing notion about it.

As a result we are not clear about what we will fulfillment of that desire.

We are spending lot of time to accumulating desire that are not use.

Sensation is a perception associated with stimulation of sense organ, or with a specific body condition.

We go into conflict when our activities are not guided by our natural acceptance.

A conflict and contradiction →

- ① Wavering aspirations
- ② Lack of confidence
- ③ Unhappiness

(4) Lacks of qualitative improvement

(a) State of resignation

(b) Short lived nature of pleasure from sensation

(i) The sweet temporary in nature

(ii) The contact of the sweet with body

(iii) The Sensation from the body to temporary in nature

(iv) The Taste of the sensation for temporary in nature

(v) Happiness in continuous in nature.