

Imp The feelings of human relationship love competence when the terms 'respect' and 'trust' are used in relationships, they are addressed with deep meanings. The term 'trust' is derived from the word 'trousten' which is an old Norse word. It means "protection and firmness". Thus the word '~~trust~~ trust' literally means to put an entire belief upon another person. The word 'respect' illustrates the feeling of uplifting any unit or person to a high esteem.
