

SECTION - 5

ANSWER - 1

(A) VALUE EDUCATION :-

Value Education is the process by which people give moral values to be each other explicit. Value education is associated with those different pedagogical methods or programmes that teachers or educators use in order to create learning experiences for student when it comes to value questions.

⇒ There are why the Value education is so important for professional ethics :-

- ① Values are related to the aims of human life.
- ② The Behavioural traits and conduct of the individuals are motivated by Values.
- ③ Through Values, individuals are able to generate awareness in terms of what strategies and approaches needs to be adopted to achieve personal and professional goals.