

The global HRM and Staffing policy

Staffing policy is concerned with the selection of employees who have the skills required to perform a particular job.

② Global leadership :-

it is defined as leading people who are based in multiple regions and of the world.

They are need to engage very diverse and distributed groups of stakeholders and colleagues to get things done.

They lead people in highly distributed virtual virtual teams.