

Section - 4

Ques: 2
Ans: 2

What is the Supportive model? The Supportive model approach states the employees are self-motivated and have value and insight to it. It is built around the concept of leadership.

→ What is Supportive model? :-

The Supportive model approach states that the organization

* What are the various models of organizational behaviour.

* Autocratic model. The root level of this model is power with managerial orientation of authority.

* Custodial model. The root level of this model is economic resources with a managerial orientation of money.

* Supportive model
* Collegial model.

* What are the 5 theories of Management.

System theory

* Principles of Administrative Management.

Bureaucratic Management

* Scientific Management.

* Theories X and Y

* What do you understand by organizational behavior?

It is the study of both group and individual performance and activity within an organization.

It is the systematic study and application of knowledge about how individuals and groups act within the organization where they work.

Draw from other disciplines to create a unique field.