

Section - 5

Ques!!

Ans b- Organization Behaviour can be defined as actions and behaviour of individual and groups to work and their impact on the organization overall functioning and performance.

Organization Behaviour can be studied at various levels within an organization. Each level has a unique set of and each level has unique roles, responsibilities and goals.

* What are the fundamental concepts of organizational behaviour?

Organization behaviour is based on a few fundamental concepts which relate to the nature of people and organization.

There are certain philosophical concepts in organizational behaviour also.

The fundamental concepts of organizational behaviour.

* What is Scope organization Behaviour ?

Scope of organization behavior :-

helps to understand the different activities and action of people in the organization. It also helps to motivate them. People Environment, Technology and structure are the main for elements.

* What is the meaning of organization Behaviour ?

Organization behavior :- The academic study of the ways people act with in groups.

Its principles are applied primarily in attempt to make businesses operate more effectively.

* What are the 4 type behaviour.

→ Aggressive, Aggression is defined as an unflad act.

* Assertive

* Passive

* Passive - Aggressive.