

Write various dimensions of technical English;

- 1) Scanning:- Scanning can be described as looking rather than reading process.
- 2) Skimming:- Skimming is used to get the overall picture of material.
- 3) Churning:- The process of extracting the useful information out of whole content by reading no. of times.
- 4) Assimilation:- It is a common phonological process by which one sound becomes more like a near by sound.