

Algorithm :- An algorithm is a set of instructions which describes the steps to be followed to get the solution of a problem.

It can be define step by step procedure to achieve a required result.

* Example of algorithm :-

