

Q- What is listening? How is it different from hearing?

Ans Listening →

① Listening is a process of receiving and interpreting the spoken word.

② Sensing is the first step of the listening process.

3.

We hear sound and concentrate on them in order to receive the message.

Difference between listening and hearing.

Listening

Hearing

- | | |
|---|------------------------------------|
| 1) Voluntary | Involuntary |
| 2) Requires conscious efforts | Happen automatically |
| 3) Active process | Passive process |
| 4) The listener play a very active part | The listener plays a passive part. |
| 5) Two way process | A one way process |