

SECTION-4

I- Significance & Scope of operation research:

- Helps in operating management
- Concerned with the optimum utilisation of resources.
- Considering human factors to the alternatives made available.
- Management is always interested in optimizing profits.
- Solved many cases of researches for military.
- Phases is full but some times leaves important steps out as a whole.
- Observation & data collection for better understanding of the problems.