

Section - 2

Q. 2 → Explain in detail various step involved in research process

Ans → Discovering and analyzing a range of significant and reliable information about a particular issue or problem with systematic planning is known as research process.

Selecting the research topic

Defining the research problem

objective of research

Literature survey

Formulation of research hypotheses

Selecting research design

Sample design

Collection of data

Execution of project

Analysis of data

Preparation of research report