

Section -3

Q1 • Private Sector → private sector bank can be define as banking institute where the majority of the share are held by the private equity holders where public sector.

• Public Sector → public sector companies serve the purpose of providing basic public service to large people where private sector companies are entirely profit driven.

• Socialism meaning - The political idea that is based on the belief that all people are equal and that money and property should be equally